PUBLIC COMMUNICATIONS

Neelie Panozzo (2414 Sportsman Club Road-Bourbonnais) expressed her concerns regarding BBCHS and their lower than average benchmark rankings for graduating students. Math was only at 22% and English was only at 51%. She is upset with these rankings and feels the students deserve a better education than what they are receiving.

Ashley Ramos (147 S Douglas Avenue-Bradley) expressed her concerns with the curriculum at BBCHS. Actions need taken in regards to books students are reading regarding socially damaging material. They do not have a Psychologist on staff to handle or educate students about situations and this is bothersome.

Dr Wendy Menigoz from out of town attended the BBCHS Board meeting and was escorted out by an Officer because she was not wearing a mask. She was upset because legally this cannot happen and she wanted officers better trained because they should not have escorted her out and she wants better training for everyone regarding masks.
