

Village of Bradley

Ordinance Committee

Date : November 13, 2018

Time: 4:30 p.m.

Agenda: Home Baking Act

Present: Trustee's Redmond, Balthazor, Allen, Watson Village Attorney Jeff Taylor
Village Administrator Wojnarowski, Village President Adams

Public Comment: John Beavis, County Health Inspector spoke in opposition citing lack of business license, unable to inspect premises, no food training. Mr. Beavis also noted the County Board denied this ordinance.

Heather Dmitrasz (Heathers cupcakes) spoke in opposition to the act.

Jim Byrne, County Board member and neighbor, spoke in favor.

Applicants Jeff and Brooke Love spoke in favor of the act. Mrs. Love has been operating a mini bakery in her home for a few years and would like to become legal. The Village Administrator noted the village does not have a health inspector at this time.

Suggestions were made to Mrs. Love to check with the mall management about leasing space in the food court, where equipment is already in place.

The committee decided to continue the discussion and asked Village Attorney to further research the issue concerning inspections, liability, and revenue constrictions. The committee will review the results at a future meeting. Motion to adjourn, Trustee Balthazor, 2nd Trustee Allen. All in favor, motion carried. Meeting adjourned 5:52 p.m.

Respectfully submitted
