Dear New Business Owner:

The Bradley Village Board of Trustees has adopted an ordinance regulating mobile food vendors and mobile food vehicles. There is a $100.00 application fee for each Business Registration. In addition, there is a fee based upon your classification category.

Any business that does not complete a business application form will be subject to the non-compliance fines as outlined in the Bradley Code of Ordinance No. O-04-22-11.

The Business Registration packet contains the following forms that must be returned with payment prior to a review of your application:

1. Business Registration Application: provide local business information; business owner information whether Sole Proprietor, Corporation or LLC; and building owner information as well as emergency contact information.
2. License Fees Form to indicate type of classification based on your category ranking and your mailing information.
3. Business Review Application to conduct zoning review and inspections by the Department of Building Standards in regard to your specific use of a business location.

Submit your application with fees by mail to the above address, attention Business Registration. You may also pay in person in the Main Office at 111 N. Michigan Avenue, Monday through Friday from 8:00 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. Checks payments should be payable to Village of Bradley.

Allow ten to fourteen business days for processing once your completed application packet has been received in our office. The licensing year is June 1 through May 31. Renewal notices will be sent each year by the Village of Bradley.

Please call Kim Baron at 815-936-5100 ext. 1124 or email kabaron@bradleyil.org if you have any questions regarding any of the above.

Mobile food vehicle means a self-contained food service operation located in a readily moveable, motorized, wheeled or towed vehicle, with facilities for storing, preparing, displaying and/or serving food or non-alcoholic beverages for retail sale intended for individual consumption, commonly referred to as a food vehicle.

Mobile food vendor means an individual, corporation, firm, partnership, association, proprietorship, not-for-profit corporation or other legal entity engaged in the business of selling food or non-alcoholic beverages from a mobile food vehicle. "Mobile food vendor" does not include ice cream vehicle operators that do not park on private property for the purpose of serving customers.

Category I facility means a food establishment, such as a mobile food vehicle, that presents a high relative risk of foodborne illness based on the large number of food handling operations typically implicated in foodborne outbreaks and/or the type of population served by the facility. The criteria used to classify facilities as Category I shall be in conformance with the Kanakake County Health Department, and shall include the following: (i) whenever cooling of potential hazardous foods occur as part of the food handling operations at the facility; (ii) when potential hazardous food is prepared hot or cold and held hot or cold for more than 12 hours before serving; (iii) if potentially hazardous foods which have been previously cooked and cooled must be reheated; (iv) when potentially hazardous food are prepared for off-premises service for which time/temperature requirement during transportation, holding and service are relevant; (v) whenever complex preparation of foods, or extensive handling of raw ingredients with hand contact for ready-to-eat foods, occurs as part of the food handling operations at the facility; (vi) if vacuum packing and/or other forms of reduced oxygen packaging are performed at the retail level; and (vii) whenever serving immunocompromised individuals, where these individuals comprise the majority of the consuming population.

Category II facility means a food establishment, such as a mobile food vehicle, that presents a medium risk of causing foodborne illness based upon few food handling operations typically implicated in foodborne outbreaks. The criteria used to classify facilities as Category II shall be in conformance with the Kanakake County Health Department, and shall include the following: (i) if hot or cold foods are not maintained at that temperature for more than 12 hours and are restricted to same day service; (ii) if preparing foods for service from raw ingredients uses only mini assembly; (iii) foods served at the establishment require complex preparation (whether canned, frozen or fresh prepared) and are obtained from approved food processing plants or Category I (high risk) food establishments.

Category III facility means a food establishment, such as a mobile food vehicle, that presents a relatively low risk of causing illness based upon few or no food handling operations typically implicated in foodborne outbreaks. The criteria used to classify facilities as Category III shall be in conformance with the Kanakake County Health Department, and shall include the following: (i) only pre-packaged foods are available or served in the facility, and any potentially hazardous foods available are commercially pre-packaged in an approved food processing plant; (ii) only limited preparation of non-potentially hazardous foods and beverages, such as snack foods and carbonated beverages occurs at the facility; and (iii) only beverages non-alcoholic are served at the facility.

Sec. 12-367. – Special Event Permits.

- (a) A mobile food vendor that intends to operate any mobile food vehicles in conjunction with a special event is not required to apply for and receive an annual mobile food vehicle permit pursuant to this Article. Instead, such a mobile food vendor shall file a special event permit application with the Village, which shall include substantially the same information as an application for a mobile food vehicle permit, and which shall be accompanied by the written consent of the special event permittee in question to allow said mobile food vendor to operate its mobile food vehicle(s) in conjunction with the special event in question.
- (b) No application fee shall be required for a special event permit. In the event that the special event permit is granted by the Village, the mobile food vendor shall pay a special event permit fee equal to $10.00 per mobile food vehicle per day for the duration of the requested permit, which shall not be longer than the duration of the special event itself.
- (c) Upon issuance of a special event permit pursuant to this section, the permitted mobile food vendor and associated mobile food vehicle(s) shall be subject to all conditions and regulations of this Article to the same extent as any other holder of a mobile food vehicle permit. Further, the special event permittee in question is and shall be responsible to ensure full compliance with all applicable provisions of this Article, as well as all other Village and County regulations, during the special event in question.
